

North Wales Tour 18 - 25 May 2013

Peter Ketchell, Bob Wilkinson, Geoff Salminen and Roger Hanslip waiting for the ladies before setting out from Chester.

With only six miles under its belt since restoration, the Bradshaw sets out from Dyserth.

Nigel Stennett-Cox shows his V8 and Y&C colours at the show.

Bob Wilkinson educates Jo Public in the arena at the Anglesey Show.

Colin French treats Lorraine Jarvis to a whopper.

Geoff Dee, Owen and Chris Baldock, Geoff Salminen and Jean Ketchell with Geoff Dee's 'Y'.

Group hug before the Last Supper

The suffragettes rehearse for the Old Ford Rally. 2013 is the centenary of the suffragettes' march on London.

Group hug on Porthmadog station before boarding the Ffestiniog train.

"Where is everybody?" Peter Purdy gets his feet wet at Tan y Bwch.

The Ffestiniog 'push-me-pull-you' engine No.10 pulls in to Tan y Bwch station for our return.

Clive Harrison flanked by previously named stalwarts, plus Mike Capps on the left, at Swallow Falls, Betws-y-Coed.

We thought of absent friends whilst in Betws-y-Coed!

At the top of the Llanberis Pass with Snowdon in the clouds.

Peter Ketchell's "CX" tourer leads the way up the Great Orme near Llandudno.

Joan Sharpe and Geoff Dee tackle the wind atop the Great Orme.

Clive Harrison arranged for us to park near Conwy Castle.

Clive's Tudor and Terry Mortiboy's Alpine at the top of the Bethesda Pass.

The twelve cars line up along the top of the Lake Vyrnwy dam.

Clive travelling the Foel y Geifr pass en route to Bala.

A re-enactment of your Editor's parking ticket farce in Llangollen: this time with a friendly parking lady in Bala.

Peter Purdy, minus one Harris Tweed cap, snapping the narrow-boat on the Chirk aqueduct.

Terry and Dot Mortiboy visiting Chirk Castle.

Our grateful thanks to Clive Harrison, never knowingly without a slice of cake!